BIOGRAPHY

Zachary Greer is an award-winning Canadian composer for film, television and advertising whose music has resonated with audiences around the world. Known for his emotionally rich and chameleonic style, his work has been featured at major festivals including TIFF and SXSW, and broadcast/streamed on major networks like CBC, APTN, Crave and Superchannel.

His feature film credits include What We Dreamed of Then, which premiered at the 2025 Atlantic International Film Festival, Do I Know You From Somewhere? (TIFF 2024), Doin It (starring Lilly Singh) and the sports drama Warrior Strong. On the documentary side, Zachary composed the score for Into The Fray, which earned him the Canadian Screen Music Award for "Best Original Score: Documentary, Factual, Lifestyle & Reality Series or Special" (2025). He also composed additional music for multiple seasons of APTN's award winning series Yukon Harvest and their new series Coastal Carvings.

A multi-instrumentalist with a core foundation in guitar, Zachary's musical palette spans jazz, blues, folk, and contemporary-classical genres. Zachary holds a Master's degree in Music Composition from the University of Ottawa, his work blends traditional orchestration with electronic textures, creating rich and evocative sonic landscapes. His compositions have been praised for their ability to "effortlessly exude serenity and beauty, as well as drama and grit."- Camilo Villamizar (The East Mag). Music is Zachary's life, but his first love was, and always will be, skateboarding. In his youth he was competitive and sponsored. Now he skateboards for joy, and for good mental health.
