BIOGRAPHY

BEN FOX is a composer for film & television, guitarist, songwriter, and music producer. In 2015 he was one of three composers to graduate from the Canadian Film Centre's Slight Music Residency, chaired by Oscar-winning composer Mychael Danna. An alumnus of the Canadian Children's Opera Company, Fox studied violin and guitar before turning his attention to rock and pop music. Over a six-year career as songwriter, guitarist, and front-man of Toronto rock band Dinosaur Bones, Fox has toured internationally, sharing the stage with a long list of artists like Broken Social Scene, Arkells, and City & Colour. Dinosaur Bones' latest album Shaky Dream (Dine Alone Records) was produced by Grammy Award-winning producer John Congleton (Modest Mouse, Erykah Badu).

As a multi-instrumentalist with a passion for innovative music production, Ben Fox brings a modern sensibility to film, television, and commercial composition. He has scored campaigns for brands like Hugo Boss, and Adidas; contributed songs to television series like The Moblees (CBC), The Cat In The Hat Knows A Lot About That (PBS), and The Stanley Dynamic (YTV); and his work in film has screened across the world at festivals like TIFF, Tribeca, Busan International, Chicago International, HotDocs, and Slamdance, among others. Recent credits include CBC television series Four In The Morning, and feature film Suck It Up (dir. Jordan Canning, Slamdance 2017). Fox's recent score for Never Steady, Never Still (dir. Kathleen Hepburn, TIFF 2017) garnered him a nomination for Best Original Score at the upcoming 2018 Canadian Screen Awards.
