BIOGRAPHY

Called "a haunting artist to watch" by Rolling Stone, Alexandra Petkovski is a prolific composer, producer, artist, and songwriter who creates genre-defying music for Film/TV, Video Game and multimedia spaces. Her love of sonic genre bending and blending is heard across her custom score and soundtrack work. Since she was a child, Alex has always loved the art of storytelling through music.

Winner of Best Composer Pitch at the 76th Berlinale Junior Executive Talent Slate 2026, multi Hollywood Music in Media and Music + Sound Awards winner, 2025 Guild of Music Supervisors Awards Canada Artist/Songwriter of the Year nominee and Best Original Song Winner at the 20th Annual Game Audio Network Guild Awards, Alex's music spans across platforms like Fortnite, American Horror Story, Disney+, Sitges International Film Festival, TIFF, Blumhouse Productions, Netflix, and HBO. She has worked on projects in the Oscars Shortlist running and featured in Golden Globes, Variety, and Rolling Stone. Alex's artist project, FJØRA, has become widely recognized across music for the screen. Her coined genre- "cinematronic" - combines elements of electronic and cinematic styles. It is creative collaboration, curiosity, and connection which drives Alex throughout her work; looking through different lenses in bringing stories and worlds to life.

Alex is proud to serve as a director on the Alliance for Women Film Composers board of directors, and Executive leadership board for the Screen Composers Guild of Canada. A Television Academy Music Peer Circle Representative, and Grammy's #NEXTGen Class leader, Alex is excited to be the lead composer on the new AMC/Acorn TV coastal murder mystery show You're Killing Me, scoring the series' music, main title theme, and custom crafted songs, starring Brooke Shields, created by showrunner Robin Bernheim.
