BIOGRAPHY

La-Nai Gabriel is an award-winning composer, arranger, and producer. They are a graduate of the Music Studies program at Humber College in Toronto, and the Sound and Music Recording program at Recording Arts Canada in Montreal. While performing extensively in Canada and internationally in the United States, Japan, United Kingdom, and Southeast Asia, La-Nai has been featured as a music director and arranger for commercial and artistic musical projects as well as a songwriter and composer for their own work.

La-Nai received a 2022 Canadian Screen Music Award (CASMA) for Best Original Score for Interactive Media with co-composer Janal Bechthold for their work on "No Reason to Apologize: The Resilient Legacy of Viola Desmond", produced by Teach Media. Recently she also won a Canadian Screen Award for her score to the series "Black Community Mixtapes".

She is also featured as composer for the 12-part docuseries "Dreams in Vantablack" by director Ian Keteku, which premiered on CBC Gem in September 2022. Her work as a composer will also be featured in upcoming episodes of "Thomas and Friends: All Engines Go!", "Superwish", and "Gisele's Mashup Adventures".

La-Nai is featured on the latest release by Tanika Charles, "Papillon de Nuit" released April 2022. She has arranged winds, strings, and vocals for Madame Gandhi, Maylee Todd, Claire Davis, Maya Killtron, Gary Beals,
