BIOGRAPHY

Michelle Osis is an Ontario-based composer for Film, TV and advertising. She emigrated from Sydney Australia where she worked as a freelance screen composer and has composed music on a number of award-winning films.

Michelle scored the award-winning film Fake Blood (dir. Rob Grant), & Knuckleball (dir. Mike Peterson) co-composed with David Arcus. She also scored the feature film Juggernaut (dir. Daniel DiMarco) where she had the pleasure to work alongside her mentor Mark Korven, as well as Neil Parfitt and Grammy award-winning musician Garry Kvistad, recording various instruments including Mark Korven's 'Apprehension Engine'. Currently can hear her music on the documentary series Urban Legend and The Haunted Museum and on the documentary Unloved: Huronia's Forgotten Children, for which Michelle recently received her fourth Canadian Screen Award nomination. She is currently working with Mark Korven on season 2 of Billy the Kid for MGM Television. Mark and Michelle also recently completed Don't Move for Sam Raimi productions.

Michelle is a Canadian Film Centre Slight Music Residency program graduate and holds a Graduate Certificate in Screen Music at the Australian Film Television Radio School and Bachelor of Music in Composition and Music Production at the Australian Institute of Music.
